PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear Family, I hope you are as excited as I am. Let me tell you why. This week, our Pastoral Staff has been meeting and it was such a blessing to have a complete team as Pastor Gisella Montana joins us. Honestly, after I left the Youth Department, it felt different not having a full team of ministry leaders to plan and vision with. I would have never guessed that 2 years later, God would provide an almost identical number of teammates like the one I left. Truly, it is a #NewDayLLFC.

We not only are installing Pastor Gisella Montana, but we are also officially accepting her into membership. Today, she will be speaking on "Our Disciple Journey." Her journey to accept this call was one of sacrifice as she moved from a 3-bedroom home to an apartment. But if you ask her, the journey is not about comfort but about willingness to follow where God is leading. Thank you, Pastor Gisella, for listening to His calling. You are an answer to our prayers. And thank you Ghinette and search committee for heeding God's leading as you all became instrumental in completing His team.
