PASTOR'S NOTE

Happy Thanksgiving Family. One of the reasons I enjoy this holiday is because it is family-based. In addition, Thanksgiving eliminates all the commercialism that comes along with Christmas. I enjoy that the focus is on giving thanks and not giving presents. My gratitude goes to our Thanksgiving Breakfast team that put together the wonderful service and yummy breakfast. What an inspiring way to begin our Thanksgiving Day.

This Sabbath is also the final reading of the list of officers for 2024. I just want to express my personal gratitude to all those who voluntarily committed to serve the next two years for God's glory. Any mistakes in the officer's list may be corrected after the final reading through the Leadership Council. I also want to express my gratitude to our nominating committee who gave of their time to nominate, approve, and contact the members. It was a big task, and you guys did a terrific job. Today, our sermon is on gratitude. I can keep on going on what I am grateful for. My prayer is that our attitude of gratitude is not reserved for a holiday but evidenced in our daily life.

Grateful with you, Pastor Manny
