PASTOR'S NOTE

Thank you, thank you, thank you. On behalf of the Pastoral Team, "Thank You," for the love and affirmation that you showed to us last Sabbath. Truly, the C.A.R.E. that you expressed reinvigorated our spirit. We know that this church will grow through your Commitment. We are supported through your Advocacy and Respect. And finally, your Engagement allows us to know that we matter to you. In addition, thank you for grace when we make mistakes, and forbearance when we do not meet your expectations. Regardless of our differences in culture, ideology, worship preferences, and understanding of Bible theology, let us remain united and focused on our mission of loving God, loving others, and making disciples.

This week begins a four-part series on Nehemiah entitled, "Rebuilding." What can we learn from this amazing story that we can apply to our lives and our church? This week, our Growing Together Sabbath School teaches us that we need to pray for "Restoration." As a church, let us focus on what builds us up, and not what tears us down so that everyone who enters will feel safe, accepted, and loved.

Let us build God's kingdom together. - Pastor Manny
