PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear Family,

Today, we commemorate the sacrifice of Jesus for us. This musical drama entitled, "The Crucifixion," is a result of hundreds of hours collectively sacrificed by the singers, actors, stage crew, AV, coordinators, and especially our director Brother Ephraim Dela Cruz. I thank and praise God for the heart of ministry from each of them. As you become immersed in the presentation, ask yourself, "Where do I stand?"

There were the soldiers who ridiculed Him. There were the crowd and the leaders who realized that Jesus did not meet their agenda. There were those who believed but chose to deny him because of fear. And there were a few who never wavered.

Honestly, what would I do if I am condemned for my faith? How would I react? Many will not hesitate to die for their faith. But I realize that dying for your faith is a one-time decision. The real question is, "Am I willing to live for my faith?" Jesus is risen. He is alive. He may not be here, but He wants to live through us if we open the door and let Him in.

Living 4 Him, Pastor Manny
