Pastor's Note

Welcome, church family and guests!
We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us today. In 1 Kings 18, Elijah asked, “How long halt ye between two opinions?” The Hebrew word poschim means “to limp” or “to stagger.” Today’s message challenges us in our decision-making. As you worship, may your faith be renewed, your prayers strengthened, and your heart reminded that God is still mighty to save.

Looking ahead, please mark your calendars for FaithFest 2025, taking place September 13–20. Our theme is “Thriving into the Unknown.” We are blessed to welcome Pastor Ann Roda as our speaker. In addition to the nightly messages, we will offer inspiring workshops designed to support your daily walk. Don’t forget to invite a friend and sign up early for these workshops.

Welcome once again, and may God strengthen your walk today!

-Pastor Manny Vitug
