Pastor's Note

Christmas isn't just about long lines in stores, last minute gift buying, traffic at Cabazon, or loud karaoke nights, and hanging lights and decorations only to take down in a few weeks. Any one relate? In today's family worship, we receive a reminder that Immanuel, God with us, came into our messy, real lives.

The best part of Christmas. Today's sermon continues in our Growing Together Thematic study where it will show that even when our plans fall apart, God's plan for us remains whole. Jesus didn't come for a perfect world—He came into our broken one.

His presence is the best gift we could ever receive this season. So even if the food isn't complete or some gifts are missing, Christmas is still whole when He is with us. We know that you have several options to worship at today, we thank you for choosing LLFC as your place of worship today.
