Pastor's Note

Good morning, church family.

We are grateful that you are here today. Whether you are a longtime member, a returning friend, or visiting for the first time, you are warmly welcomed in this place.

I also want to take a moment to thank those who recently updated their membership information. Taking the time to do that helps us stay connected as a church family and allows us to care for one another more intentionally. Your willingness to help us keep our records current strengthens the life of our community.

Today we will spend time reflecting on a simple but powerful truth of our faith: that God sees, and God provides. Wherever you may be in your journey right now, I pray that our time together will remind you that the Lord is attentive to our lives and faithful in every season.

Let's worship together.

-Pastor Manny
