Pastor's Note

Welcome church! We hope you're having a restful sabbath today.

God's call in our life is individual and collective. When we're called, we doubt. But we have a God who equips us with what we need and what we already have. Sometimes it takes a wilderness experience to experience the growth needed. Sometimes through our fears we are able to find ourselves. God not only sees our potential, but already has seen our imperfect passions and desires from the very beginning and reinforces them with His spirit. God sees us in our truest form, it just takes time for us to do the same.
